This morning in our bulletin is a letter from our Diocesan hierarchs outlining one of the ways we all are able to help with the raising of funds to help with the needs of those who suffered great devastation and loss during Hurrican Harvey. To help with this we will have our special collection bowl on the Tetrapod today and next Sunday and we encourage everyone to give generously as we as a Diocese work together to help those of our fellow Americans who are suffering and in the process of rebuilding at the present time.
